Summer is here! Time to relax, kick back, and not worry about anything - unless thinking about your financial present or future makes you anxious. If this is the case, let a Stacey Braun Associates planner help you alleviate or address concerns so you can enjoy the season!

Why head into Summer with “heavy” baggage when a free, confidential, and timely financial counseling session can “add lightness” to your mental suitcase? Whether you are looking for suggestions, recommendations, and ideas, or simply need information or a second opinion, a Stacey Braun Certified Financial Planner® is ready to assist.

Consultations can cover a number of topics, such as retirement planning, investing, and budgeting. Meetings are always devoted to matters of greatest importance to you – and never involve pressure to buy anything.

Sessions bring important facts and details into focus and allow a planner to help you make progress toward the financial goals you are working towards.
